Geno's Steaks 1219 South 9th St (9th and Passyunk) 215/389-0659 genosteaks.com
 No visit to Philly is complete without a trip to the legendary Geno's Steaks, in the heart of South Philly! Serving Philly's finest steaks since 1966, Geno's uses only the best, thinly sliced rib-eye steak so it grills up nice and juicy (never greasy). Their onions are always fresh, their bread always comes straight from the oven, and their cheese... well, it's cheese. You can never really go wrong with cheese. Offering great hoagies, too, plus cheese fries. Open 24 hours. Outdoor seating is available.

The Victor Café 1303 Dickinson St. 215/468-3040 A Philadelphia landmark since 1918, this "music lovers' rendezvous" is an Italian restaurant that cultivates old traditions and seamlessly blends them with new ones. Originally DiStefano's Gramophone shop, the family-owned and operated cafe keeps its musical legacy alive with genuine memorabilia, and most uniquely: singing operatic waitstaff. With Northern Italian cuisine (ranging from $9-$43) accompanied by unforgettable live performances, reservations are strongly suggested for the “Most Romantic Restaurant” in Philadelphia (2018 & 2019). Valet parking is available nightly.

forget the name. It's one of the many surprises at Xi'an Sizzling Woks, a restaurant specializing in Shaanxi province cuisine. Nothing blends these influences into a soulful fusion like the passage of thousands of years. Our top recommendation is the "Chinese Hamburger," a hearty appetizer that's like a lip-smacking form of Middle Eastern heresy. Another burger worth trying is beef and green pepper, seasoned with cayenne pepper and cumin for a stronger flavor. Unlike other restaurants, Xi'an Sizzling Woks is also built for family-style sharing.

Yakitori Boy 211 N. 11th St. 215-923-8088. A perfect spot for a relaxing, romantic dinner or night out in the city, Yakitori Boy is located one block from the convention center in Chinatown. Yakitori, sushi, and traditional bites such as Takoyaki are all served Tapas style. The open kitchen, gracious staff, and a beautiful modern ambiance exceed the typical dining experience. Food and Drink are just accessories here... the real gem is upstairs in the lounge. Sing in the karaoke lounge or book a private room for those rockstars in training!
