forget the name. It's one of the many surprises at Xi'an Sizzling Woks, a restaurant specializing in Shaanxi province cuisine. Nothing blends these influences into a soulful fusion like the passage of thousands of years. Our top recommendation is the "Chinese Hamburger," a hearty appetizer that's like a lip-smacking form of Middle Eastern heresy. Another burger worth trying is beef and green pepper, seasoned with cayenne pepper and cumin for a stronger flavor. There's no better way to beat the heat in the summer than with a bowl of Liang Pi "cold noodles"—whether it's the weather or the chili. Unlike other restaurants, Xi'an Sizzling Woks is also built for family-style sharing.
